With reference to the correspondence ending with endorsement from this office No. 5211, dated the 14th September 1906, I am directed to say that, in view of the orders of the Government of India for lessening the pressure of state traffic on the Indian Telegraph Department and of the fact that the necessity for telegraphic reports no longer exists, the appearance of any forged note in future may kindly be intimated to the Central Intelligence Office by post instead of by telegram.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H S James

First Assistant Resident.
